Dear People of God,

We're taking a look, a very superficial one to be sure, at the matter (the material things necessary) and the form (the words) which when brought together bring about the sacramental presence of Jesus the Lord. Today we'll begin a discussion of the sacraments of healing. There are two: Reconciliation and the Anointing of the Sick.

Reconciliation brings about not merely the forgiveness of sins but their absolution – they disappear from the memory of God as a gift of spiritual healing Jesus does because he loves us. We humans, whose memory is far superior to that of elephants which reputedly never forget a thing, find it difficult to exorcise sins from our memory, especially the ones that most affect some relationship which was destroyed with God, somebody else or ourselves. For an exaggerated example, we may have used a harsh word toward somebody in second grade and years later the event comes flashing back in Technicolor memory, haunting us because that person moved to Saskatoon and is no longer around to tell we're sorry. We may well have confessed the sin in second grade, again in seventh when it flew back into our consciousness, again when we turned thirty, and it's still there haunting us when we hit eighty (years, not miles an hour). While we hear the words of forgiveness and absolution over and over, our doubtful human mind remembers. On the other side of that coin is God. The first time we confessed the sin, God was asked sacramentally to forget it, to never hold it against us, and he complied.

The sin in God's mind does not exist but his abiding love does. It's a miracle that goes far beyond the forgiveness which we seek in the Penitential Rite at Mass or when we recite an Act of Contrition before going to bed.

The matter of the sacrament is the imposition of hands which can be done either directly by placing the priest's hand on the head of the penitent, or indirectly by holding the hand of the priest out toward the penitent (more common today after Covid-19). The form is the words I absolve you of all your sins. . .

As with the other sacraments, Reconciliation has some additional ritual actions surrounding the actual matter and form. There's the examination of conscience, a thoughtful reflection on our behaviors, words, etc. to discover those times and places where our words, actions, behaviors have done damage to our relationship of love with God, our neighbor or ourself. There's an 'end' to that examination called the firm purpose of amendment, a powerful desire to not do that same thing again. There's the actual confession, a humble admission that we aren't perfect and naming the reasons. These steps preceded the sacramental matter and form. Following it is the Penance, something good which demonstrates how easy it is to do good rather than evil.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 and leave a message with your phone number and your call will be returned as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is available to visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Happenings at the Parish!

Becoming Catholic - OCIA (Formerly RCIA) Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Are you an adult who needs to complete your sacraments or are interested in joining our Church:

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is the process by which adults become members of the Catholic Church. OCIA involves teachings, classes, a sponsor, liturgical rites, and, at the end of the process, receiving the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation. If you're interested in joining OCIA please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 (Sherri).

Meijer Simply Give—Rossford Store
Sunday, June 30 —Saturday, September 28, 2024

meijer

Each Meijer Simply Give campaign feeds hungry families by replenishing the shelves of more than 270 food pantries in Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Wisconsin. The program encourages customers to add a $10 Simply Give donation card to their cart, which is then converted into a Meijer food-only gift card and given to a local food pantry in the store's community.

Cards are located in back of church. Deacon Tom's Food Pantry will benefit from donation cards at the Rossford Meijer store now through Sept. 28. In addition, Meijer will double match all customer cards on Saturday, August 17 and September 14, effectively tripling contributions made on both days.

Meijer customers shopping online using Meijer Pickup or Home Delivery can also include Simply Give donation cards as an add-on to their orders.
