Dear People of God,

Today we make note of two key events in the life of the Church: All Saints and All Souls. The first, celebrated on November 1, recalls the long-standing tradition of our Church that when Jesus rose from the dead, he brought along the souls of the just and sped them on their way to the kingdom even before he himself departed for heaven fifty days after the Resurrection. Those righteous ones include the saints and people of every race and nation, every background and IQ, every stature and color. Many of them we know by name, either because they come down to us from tradition or because somebody "canonized" them and officially declared them to be in heaven. For example, Abraham has never been canonized but we all know he made it into the heavenly realm. St. Peter, the first pope, was never canonized but the early Church recognized his holiness and knew he made it there as well. More recently the Church has been kept busy noting the many people of every age and place who lived a life here which merited life in heaven without delay. Two young people of our own era, Pier Giorgio Frassati and Carlo Acutis, will soon be declared among the saints in heaven.

What do we know about them or about any of the saints celebrated by the Church? Do we really know Peter? Or Pier Giorgio? Or Bernadette? What made these ordinary people, all of whom exhibited the typical problematic behaviors many of us may demonstrate, so holy that they are considered in God's presence forever?

How well do we know the American saints? Here are a few: how many do you recognize? Marianne Cope, Theodore Guerin, Stanley Rother or Solanus Casey whose shrine in Detroit is less than an hour from Toledo. Do you know what the town of Grand Coteau, Louisiana, has to do with proving the sanctity of a "blessed" so he could become a saint?

Sadly, we know very little about saints and perhaps that's why we aren't on the road to being declared a saint! Most of us will have to settle for being celebrated on November 2, All Souls Day. Everybody dies but we only have limited ideas about what happens to them when they do – the soul cannot die so where does it go? We don't know but postulate three destinations: Heaven, Purgatory or Hell. Our hope as Christians who live the Law of Love is that no one goes to hell and some get right into heaven, but others must first make restitution for their sins in this life. Purgation is a cleansing, burning off the bad so only the good remains (you can read about it in Wisdom, 3: 1-9). All of us ought to desire to get into heaven without delay and that might get us to take a look at how the Saints did it. You can find hundreds of lives of the saints at the library or on FORMED. Why not take a look and get on the road now?

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 and leave a message with your phone number and your call will be returned as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is available to visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Happenings at the Parish!

Reminder!!

Winter is Just Around the Corner!

We are collecting back packs, blankets, coats, hats, gloves, boots, socks and warm clothing for the cold season fast approaching.

All items will be given directly back to the community through the outreach programs. Your help would be greatly appreciated with any donations you may have.

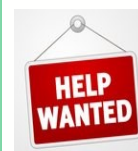

All donations can be dropped off at Historic St. Patrick's parish office between the hours of 9:00 am and 2:00 pm or at church on Sunday.

An easier way to donate

Looking for a simple way to make a donation to the parish? Scan this QR code and go right to the donation page for The Historic Church of Saint Patrick. Open up the camera app on your smartphone. When you focus the camera on the QR Code, your phone will ask if you want to go to our site. Touch the instruction bar at the top/bottom of the photo and it will take you right to the donation page where you will see a yellow donate button. Thank you for supporting our parish and helping us share the Good News!
