Honored Veterans, friends, and parishioners,

Welcome to our celebration of mass which falls on the day before this year's national day tomorrow, November 11, honoring our many veterans, young and old, men and women, who have given of their lives in support of our military commitments here and abroad. Our hopes today include the wish that our vets can take full advantage of some of the events and celebrations targeting their military roles. We pray that all will be able to be involved and will be shown proper respect and thanks for their service.

Most veterans don't go around with big neon signs with arrows pointing to them announcing "I Served," but I suspect all of us know many of those who did or are serving. These include an uncle or aunt, a father or mother, a child, niece or nephew, or that guy down the street who proudly wears an ancient and tattered American Legion baseball cap. We might mistakenly think of them as ordinary Americans who answered the call; however, I believe all of them are extraordinary Americans who could so easily have looked the other way rather than risk life and limb on a dangerous front. We go beyond a one-day event whenever we pray for and keep in our thoughts all of those who served and are out there right now defending not only our liberty, but that of the better part of an entire world. Today we're losing what has been called the "greatest generation," those soldiers, sailors, marines, pilots, merchant marines, coast guard and support personnel of the Second World War.

Other generations, the lost men and women of the Vietnam conflict and those who made their way to Korea, Kuwait, Iraq and numerous other places, took the place of that "greatest generation" by continuing the tradition of standing up for what's right even at tremendous risk. All of us who remain behind should give thanks for the will to serve demonstrated by so many. All of us who remain behind should show our support for those brave, willing men and women who stand guard on our behalf. All of us who remain behind should kneel in prayer, not only of thanks but ones of compassion for the wounded whose lives are forever changed.

Last week, the national season of voting came to a close. Exercising your right to vote paid tribute to the many who served our country in guaranteeing that right, ensuring our security and protecting our freedoms. Now we enter a period of reconciliation for the tensions of the campaigns and together work to build the support necessary to achieve the benefits we all seek, the ones our Vets dedicated themselves to enabling.

Welcome, Parishioners, Vets and families of Vets. We're proud to stand with you in prayer and celebration.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 and leave a message with your phone number and your call will be returned as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is available to visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Renewal Training for Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist

If you were not able to participate in the eucharistic minister training last weekend at St. Martin DePorres there is an online training with the program FORMED by watching a video (listed under Presence, Episode 2 on the Eucharist) and filling out a series of questions on the video.

Your participation is mandatory to continue as an Eucharistic Minister and must be finished by the end of November.

Please call the parish office if you are interested in the online training with FORMED.
