Dear People of God,

Today we celebrate the end of the Christmas Season with the Solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord: it is quite a fast transition from the baby in the manger to the adult Jesus. What happened in the interim? You may have seen advertisements for a film called "The Carpenter's Son." It's very loosely "based on a true story" so you can believe it bears little resemblance to its source which is the "Infancy Narratives of Jesus." In the original, a compilation of brief accounts of Jesus' miraculous works as a child, the author is unknown but the work is credited to Thomas (a common trait among unknown authors back then to claim that some famous person wrote the book to increase sales, readership and belief) The goal was to fill in the missing twelve years from the birth narratives to the time when Jesus turned twelve and was presented for the rituals of adulthood at the great Temple. Most if not all are fiction.

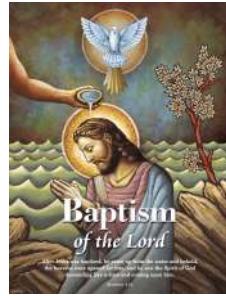

For anyone familiar with the four gospels which made it into the Bible's New Testament, it's easy to tell why this work didn't make the grade. Nothing Jesus does in the Infancy Narratives sounds like, feels like or resembles anything he did as an adult. Some of his "miracles" are funny, some strange and a couple even seem just the opposite of the real Jesus. I'm not sure the film made or will make it to Toledo theaters (our movie houses don't seem to attract a lot of what Hollywood produces), but if it does, watch with a large box of Morton's because it bears little in common with the actual book or the four gospels we've come to know as the New Testament.

So how do written works get into the Bible? No, God did not open the gates of heaven and hand them down – they were among hundreds of works being written in the exciting days after the persecution ended. As an area's bishops got together to discuss what should be recommended reading (or listening since most people back then didn't read), they published, as a "final word" on their gathering, a list of books they felt best revealed the mysteries of Jesus.

Over the years these were refined, edited, added to and subtracted from as the Church grew in its understanding of the message of Jesus that we love one another as God has loved us. Books which didn't address that issue were set aside. Most were not condemned as either totally off base or heretical, but they were not on the list of recommended reading which coalesced fairly early into the books of today's New Testament. The vast number of works being written remained on the book shelves. Some disappeared over time, others survived in whole or part.

Scripture scholarship really took off in the eighteenth century (look up Jean Astruc on FORMED) and a lot of dusty scrolls were pulled down and suddenly returned to the booksellers stalls, among them the Infancy Narratives. Those scripture scholars who examined them easily understood why they didn't make the Bible and even wrote lengthy commentaries on the "why nots." In the early twentieth century many of these works were published together as the "Lost Books of the Bible" and I believe you can find that on the library's shelves. They were never lost but they were seen to be so out-of-line with the Bible that none of them rated inclusion. If you read Syriac, Coptic, Greek and Latin, you might want to read the works of the early Church Councils in a collection known as "Mansi," named after the eighteenth century priest who collected 53 volumes of council documents so interested readers can use the lists of recommended reading, none of which I could find included the Infancy Narratives.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 and leave a message with your phone number and your call will be returned as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is available to visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Happenings at the Parish!

Whenever a county/city within the Diocese of Toledo is placed under a Level 3 Snow Emergency during which all roadways are closed to non-emergency personnel, the Catholic Churches within that geographic region will cancel the scheduled Saturday Vigil, Sunday, or Holy Day Masses. Roman Catholics in that region, therefore, are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass. If Masses are cancelled, Catholics are encouraged to participate in Holy Mass via television, radio, or internet, making a spiritual Communion.

When Mass is cancelled, all other diocesan, parish, or school events in that geographic region are also cancelled.

Electronic Donation

Please consider electronic donation for your Sunday offering! The electronic donors can schedule their church donations weekly, biweekly or monthly. The electronic giving option allows these people to give to their church regardless of where they are during the year. The electronic sign-up information is located on our web-site and at each entrance of the church. Call the parish office for more information!

Please pray for the Mass intentions:

Deacon Tom's Food Pantry

During November we served 337 households. Seniors served were 140. Adults served were 447 and children were 302. That is 889 people served because of your generosity.

The pantry was only open until Dec. 19 because of Christmas break, but you can see the need continues to be great. In December we served 196 households which included 68 seniors, 255 adults, and 151 children. That is a total of 474 people!

An easier way to donate

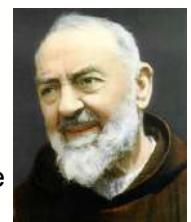

Looking for a simple way to make a donation to the parish? Scan this QR code and go right to the donation page for The Historic Church of Saint Patrick. Open up the camera app on your smartphone. When you focus the camera on the QR Code, your phone will ask if you want to go to our site. Touch the instruction bar at the top/bottom of the photo and it will take you right to the donation page where you will see a yellow donate button. Thank you for supporting our parish and helping us share the Good News!
