A message from Fr. Joe Mallia

Rising from the Ashes Revival is a chance to grow, renew, and deepen your faith in Christ, centered in the Eucharist. Through inspiring speakers, uplifting praise music, and fellowship with Catholics from across the Archdiocese of Detroit, we hope every attendee encounters Christ in a meaningful way.

A highlight of the day will be a public procession with the Blessed Sacrament from Huntington Place to the Spirit of Detroit statue, culminating in a blessing over the city and the Church of Detroit from Archbishop Weisenburger.

This revival is about hope. Life can be challenging, but God is greater than any obstacle. We are called to rise, move forward boldly, and bring Christ to the world around us. Strengthened in faith, we also seek to serve others: all ticket proceeds will support Better Way Detroit, Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan, Mary's Mantle, The Pope Francis Center, and the Capuchin Soup Kitchen.

Unlike any other recent event in the Archdiocese, Rising from the Ashes Revival unites Catholics beyond parish boundaries to celebrate our shared faith in Christ. Join us and be part of this movement, together, in the Holy Spirit, we can strengthen our faith and be the revival God is calling forth in us.

St. Mark the Evangelist

Just who is St. Mark, the author of this short but action-packed Gospel? Using outside sources, other books of the Bible, and the Gospel itself, Dr. Gray takes a closeup look at St. Mark, and his connection with St. Peter and the Christians of Rome.

he had diseases pressed upon him to touch him. ¹¹Angels beheld him, they fell down before him and cried. ¹²And he strictly ordered them not to make him in the mountain, and called to him those whom he desired. ¹³And he appointed twelve, to be with him, and had authority to cast out demons: ¹⁴Simon whom he surnamed Peter, and James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, and Andrew, and Philip, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Cananaean, ¹⁵and Judas Iscariot, who

Via Lucis

Via Lucis, or the Stations of Light, is a devotional practice for reflecting on the joy and hope of the Resurrection during the Easter season. While the Stations of the Cross commemorate Jesus' journey to his crucifixion and death, the Stations of Light focus on the events that followed the Resurrection.
