

Is Liturgical Ministry training for you?

Are you...

- Currently, a lector, eucharistic minister or acolyte?
- Interested in serving as a lector, eucharistic minister or acolyte?

Then join us after 10 a.m. Mass on Sunday, September 27, as we walk through the Mass to explain and see the roles of each liturgical ministry. Msgr. Chris will guide us, and experienced ministry volunteers will fill the roles on the altar.

The training will be livestreamed on Facebook and YouTube, and will be available for future trainings on The Historic Church of Saint Patrick YouTube home page.

Those attending can ask questions or get clarification on the practices of each ministry that happen during Mass. Learn the appropriate reverent postures on the altar, and the purpose of behaviors that are part of the Mass. This is the perfect opportunity to see exactly what is required of lectors, eucharistic ministers and acolytes.

This is a required event for all current liturgical ministers. Attendance can be in person on September 27, watching the livestream on September 27 or watching the recorded training after September 27. Please contact Sherri in the parish office at 419.243.6452 to sign up.

Thank you to all those who participate in liturgical ministry at The Historic Church of Saint Patrick. We appreciate the gifts you share with our parish family

St. Therese | Littlest Saints

Which flower in Jesus's garden is the best? The most beautiful? St. Therese gives us her "little" answer to these questions.

St. Jerome | Catholic Saints

An early Church Father from the 4th century, St. Jerome translated the Bible into Latin with the desire to make Scripture more accessible. St. Jerome is the patron of biblical scholars, translators, and archivists and famously said, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."

Who Are the Archangels?

Dr. Ben Akers and Dr. Elizabeth Klein discuss archangels and what role they have in our lives.
