Surrounded By Saints

The Historic Church of St. Patrick, November Focus on Saints

Week One

When asked to describe a saint, the responses can seem rather vague, depending on who is being asked for the description or definition. We all know of the Saints of the Church, and we know of people from our past, or now, who seem to be saints. "She is a saint!" or "He certainly was a saint!" have probably been used by most of us to describe someone who is a good person, maybe even a close friend, relative, or a spouse. Still, rather vague.

Checking the Catholic Catechism index for "saints" gives a cross-reference, "see Holiness." Looking at this yields a number of entries. Reading CCC2013, we are told, "All are called to holiness...the holiness of the People of God will grow in fruitful abundance, as is clearly shown in the history of the Church through the lives of so many saints." The index also lists entries where saints are: "companions in prayer," (CCC2683-2684); "example of Christian holiness," (CCC1717, 2030); "as patrons," (CCC2156); as part of a "communion of saints," (CCC946-959); and describes the "significance of canonization" for our Church's official saints, (CCC828). Much less vague!

Many books have been written about the lives of our saints, and, as Catholics, we are, quite literally, surrounded by saints. Let us look at our beautiful church, The Historic Church of St. Patrick, to become better acquainted with some of the saints of the Church.

Each week of November we will focus on an area at HSP, a mini study of our saints. This week let's start with the sanctuary. Look at the main altar, then guide your gaze up, up.

You will see five beautiful stained-glass windows. These life-size sanctuary windows represent, from left to right, St. Anne, the Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Savior, St. Joseph, and St. Joachim. It is a portrait gallery of the Holy Family, the ultimate saints, AND Jesus Christ. Companions in prayer? Life models and examples? Yes!

Now, bring your eyes back down to the beautifully carved main altar. In the three niches you will find, from left to right, statues of St. Anthony, Saint Patrick – our church patron, and Saint Edward. It is probably no coincidence that our first pastor, the engineering supervisor of the construction of The Church of St. Patrick, was named Rev. Edward Anthony Hannin.

Until next time, a reminder that we are indeed "surrounded by saints," and called by God to strive to be one.

How to Advent | Episode 1

Advent is only a few weeks away. Can you believe it? Join us over the next few weeks as we prepare for this season with "How to Advent."

The Story of Death | Eternal Rest | Episode 1

Where did death come from? What does death mean for the human person? Is it simply just part of life, or is it something else? In this first session, we discuss the story of death and God's response to it: defeating death by dying and rising from the dead.

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

In the Year of St. Francis

Celebrating his feast day

4 October

To mark the Year of St. Francis we're extending an invitation to parishioners and friends of the Historic Church of St. Patrick to consider donating a statue of Francis for our Stations Garden to replace Brendan the Navigator who has navigated to the plaza in front of the church. A donor or donors may design their own imagery which our artists and sculptors will use to create the statue. Donor(s) may wish to memorialize a loved one by using their face for the saint. If interested, please contact the parish office and you'll be given the details.
