Dear People of God,

Today – All Saints Day – and tomorrow -- All Souls Day – honor those who are now before the throne of God and those whom we may have known well whom we hope are also there. However, like most Holy Days, these two festivals are also about you and me and our destiny as children and disciples of God. Over the past couple of weeks, I've been addressing the notion of saints; today I want to zero in on what the Church believes is the hallmark or tell-tale behavior of a true saint.

I've noted that when someone is proposed as a saint, the first thing the Church wants to hear about is heroic virtue. Virtue is doing the right thing so if it's heroic, its doing the right thing when that becomes difficult or may bring about suffering or even death. That's because most of us, temples of the Holy Spirit and bound to God through the sacraments, usually do the right thing which is why, when we go to Confession, we have so little to tell. We don't go out of our way to violate those famous Big Ten!

Unfortunately, most of us don't go the extra mile to do the good or the right thing. We tend to hoard the spiritual and physical energy required to reach that plateau to save time, energy and sometimes our life. Still, we're all called to holiness by virtue of being God's children and if we wanted to, could easily go way beyond the minimum to exhibit genuine and real heroic virtue.

Each of us can probably think of someone or perhaps many who are doing this on a regular basis, people who fervently work for others to raise up the dignity of children, the poor, the dispossessed. We all know people who spend lots of time in prayer and reflection, growing in their understanding of God's love.

The whole point is that it isn't all that difficult. That's what St. John Paul II believed and why he canonized so many saints. Most were men and women and a few children who lived rather ordinary lives but accomplished extraordinary virtue in the way they lived that ordinary life. An excellent example is Carlo Acutis. He was a typical high school student who got caught up in computers just like millions of other kids. However, he liked going to Mass and discovered on his computer that there were hundreds of miracles that had occurred at Mass or with the Blessed Sacrament. Rather than simply be amazed and leave it at that, he started collecting these eucharistic miracles; consequently, today we know him as the developer of a web page and exhibit of many of these miracles. It took time, interest and energy, all of which he gave in a way that revealed real heroic virtue, even after he was diagnosed with a cancer that moved swiftly and painfully to a quick death.

Give some thought to the ways you could exhibit that same sense of using time, energy and interest to reveal heroic virtue in your life. And remember what St. John Paul said: Don't be afraid to be a saint.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults: OCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Paul at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at Immaculate Conception, 9:30 a.m. at Historic St. Patrick and 10:30 a.m. at Immaculate Conception every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419- 243-6031 and leave a message with your phone number and your call will be returned as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is available to visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Central Catholic Open House and Shadowing Opportunities

Central Catholic High School's annual Open House is Sunday, November 15 from noon to 3 p.m. Families and students from 5th-8th grade are invited to tour the school, visit classrooms, meet teachers and coaches, explore all of our programs, and learn about scholarships and financial aid options.

We also invite 7th and 8th graders to experience a day in the life of a Central Catholic student through our Irish for a Day program. Interact with current students and teachers on a typical school day, tour our historic building on Cherry Street, and experience what it's like to be a part of the Irish family!

The Irish for a Day program takes place on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays. To sign up visit CentralCatholic.org/Admissions and click on the IRISH FOR A DAY graphic. Please call 419-255-2280 or email admissions@centralcatholic.org for more information.

Please keep in prayer the fallen First Responders who gave their lives to keep us safe, as well as their grieving families, friends, and coworkers.

This week, the Catholic Church celebrates National Vocation Awareness Week, an important time to pray for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. We invite you to join the Diocese of Toledo in praying especially for the young men and women who are currently discerning and responding to God's call.

In today's bulletin, you will find the names and faces of the men in formation for the Diocese of Toledo priesthood, along with men and women from our diocese, or in formation within our diocese, who are discerning consecrated life. Please take these pages home with you. Place them on your refrigerator, tuck them into your Bible or prayer book, or keep them wherever you pray, and remember these young men and women by name.

We also ask every Catholic in the Diocese of Toledo to continue Bishop Daniel E. Thomas' invitation to pray one Hail Mary each day for vocations and to offer one act of fasting each Friday for an increase in vocations to the Diocese of Toledo priesthood.

Please pray that more young men and women will hear the Lord's call and have the courage to respond generously.

To learn more about vocations or the Diocese of Toledo priesthood, visit ToledoPriesthood.org. Men discerning a possible call to the priesthood can also find contact information there for Father David Kidd, Director of Diocesan Priestly Vocations.

Spirit Wear Pre- Order

Today, November 1, is the final day to order spirit wear from JupMode created specifically for our parish.

Stainless coffee mugs make great Christmas gifts as do sturdy bags, baseball caps, shirts, sweatshirts, vests, and jackets.

Prepaid orders are due at midnight on November 1 and delivered with plenty of time for Christmas giving.
