Dear People of God,

Tomorrow, November 9, is the commemoration of the dedication of the Lateran Basilica. You may know it better as St. John Lateran. Its official title is Major Papal, Patriarchal and Roman Archbasilica, Metropolitan and Primatial Cathedral of the Most Holy Savior and Saints John the Baptist and the Evangelist in Lateran, Mother and Head of All Churches in Rome and in the World because it's the actual cathedral where the pope as bishop presides. Like many of the churches in Rome and across the old Roman Empire, it was first built by Constantine who made Catholicism legal.

The pope lived there at least into the middle ages and could easily take up residence there if he wanted to. It's a magnificent worship space known for the massive statues of the twelve Apostles which line the nave. Its ceiling was once covered in gold which was a gift from the king of Spain from the first trove brought from the Americas. Pope Leo took possession of the Cathedra as Bishop of Rome.

November is traditionally the month of all souls, extending the commemoration from 2 November through the first Sunday of Advent. The idea behind this is the "end times" toward which the liturgical year is moving and the far more important "end times" when Jesus will return to "judge the living and the dead." Catholic piety believes that when we die, we have to go through a period of purgation to rid ourselves of the effects of sin and make restitution for the effects of our sins on others. We believe that praying for those "in purgatory" will bring them the mercy of God to shorten the period of purgation and get them into heaven quicker. Of course, we can shorten our own stint in purgatory by living a life worthy of Jesus Christ, being "kind and merciful, full of compassion." That sort of life doesn't leave behind any negative effects so it's a good reason to take up the Great Command and love our neighbor as we love ourselves.

We might also want to consider who will be praying for us should we head into purgatory when we die. Have we cultivated people as friends who will care enough to pray for the repose of our soul or are our friends mere social contacts which will cease to exist the day we're no longer around? Young or old, we will all face the end times of our own life and we ought to be preparing for it spiritually and physically which is to say, regardless of your age, give serious thought to a will. A will reflects our due diligence regarding our properties and what happens to them once we're gone. Of course, that brings up the famous line you see in the bulletin now and then: remember us in your will. Many faithful Catholics who contribute regularly forget that once they die, those regular donations disappear and negatively affect the income we need to operate. A gift in a will perpetuates the regular offering and reflects your support of the church you have elected as your faith home.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Order of Christian Iniation of Adult: OCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Paul at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at Immaculate Conception, 9:30 a.m. at Historic St. Patrick and 10:30 a.m. at Immaculate Conception every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419- 243-6031 and leave a message with your phone number and your call will be returned as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

ROLL CALL OF FALLEN LAW ENFORCEMENT

October was another busy month for Deacon Tom's Food Pantry at Historic St. Patrick

Two hundred seventy households were served during the month. That number includes 128 seniors, 335 adults, and 223 children. The total number of people served was 686 even though we were closed for three days. Seventy two hygiene kits were distributed. Your generous donations are always appreciated. Favorite items donated include ramen, chili, deodorant, toilet tissue and toothpaste.

Honoring All Who Served

On Veterans Day, we honor and thank the brave men and women who have served our country with courage, dedication, and sacrifice. May God bless all veterans and their families, and may we always remember those who gave their lives for our freedom.

Join us every Wednesday during November at Historic St. Patrick, following the 5:30 p.m. Mass, as we pray the Rosary with a special focus on vocations and the lives of the saints.
