Dear People of God,

Last September the Diocesan Pastoral Conference focused on developing a vocations mentality in our parishes by creating a vocations mentality in each of us and in our families. The Liturgy, Evangelization and a newly formed Vocations Committees have been doing things to help move the parish in that direction. Hopefully the subtle messages of those efforts are beginning to yield some results in your life whether it be prayer or just thinking about the necessity of strong families, consecrated religious, deacons and priests if our Church is to thrive and bring the Good News to the community around us. When Jesus returned to heaven, he left us in charge and we don't want to let him down. Think vocations, pray for them and support those who live them, be it married couples, men and women religious, deacons or priests.

Today is World Poverty Awareness Sunday. Pope Francis reminded us that Jesus once said "the poor you will always have with you," a reminder that today all across the globe, poverty is a leading cause of pestilence, starvation and even wars. Closer to home, the current economic environment has led far more people into poverty than can be bought out by even the greatest effort of charity and generosity. Any of the volunteers (we can use a few more so don't hesitate to make a decision to assist in feeding the poor) who work the Food Pantry can tell you that numbers are going up, not down; at the same time, the donations from major sources are going down, not up. The challenge right here at home to meet the needs of those who suffer the effects of poverty is a serious one and demands the attention of each one of us whether in prayer, service as a volunteer or donations of goods or the cash necessary to obtain commodities the food banks don't provide.

We ought to keep in mind the millions around the world who live in poverty daily. Drought, war, flooding, loss of arable land to rising tides – all of these are creating a huge number of men, women and children whose future does not look at all good and whose end times may well be coming far sooner than they should. These ar real people, not just images on our super-wide-screen TV. They suffer with almost nothing while most of us easily hand over what it takes to carry around our phone, flip on a streaming service, use highspeed fiber internet and enjoy three meals a day.

All of us should give thought to how we might alleviate some of that suffering, especially in light of Thanksgiving which looms on our national horizon. All of us, regardless of our economic circumstances, have much for which to thank God when we compare ourselves to those of the third world who are at risk of starvation, dying from epidemic disease and have no shelter from wind, rain and storm. As you sit down to your Thanksgiving dinner, stop to think about and pray for the poorest of the poor in Haiti whose dinner will be clay tablets so that there is something in their stomach. Make your Thanksgiving a sincere day of appreciation.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Order of Christian Iniation of Adult: OCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Paul at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at Immaculate Conception, 9:30 a.m. at Historic St. Patrick and 10:30 a.m. at Immaculate Conception every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419- 243-6031 and leave a message with your phone number and your call will be returned as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is availableto visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, Working on the Margins!

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ.
On the weekend of November 14-15, Catholics across the Unit-ed States have the opportunity to honor the World Day of the Poor and help their neighbors who struggle against poverty by giving to the annual special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD).

See bulletin insert for more information. Envelopes can be found at each entrance of church.

Join us every Wednesday during November at Historic St. Patrick, following the 5:30 p.m. Mass, as we pray the Rosary with a special focus on vocations and the lives of the saints.
